

The Gregorian University Foundation was established in 1972 by Jesuit Superior General Pedro Arrupe with the mission to support the three Jesuit Institutions of higher education in Rome, Pontifical Gregorian University, Pontifical Biblical Institute and Pontifical Oriental Institute, by raising much needed funds for scholarships, academic chairs, libraries and capital improvements. Counted among its distinguished alumni are saints and blessed, popes, cardinals, bishops, priests, religious and innumerable lay men and women leaders since 1551. GregorianFoundation.org
